ARTICLE I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1: Establishment

The Students of De Anza College do hereby establish and adopt these Bylaws to provide for both fair and equitable representation of students and advocacy for their needs at the College, District, State, and Federal levels.

Section 2: Name

The collective name of all De Anza College Students as represented by these Bylaws shall be the De Anza Student Government (DASG) Constituents. The name of the representative executive and legislative body shall be the De Anza Student Government (DASG) Senate, hereinafter referred to as the DASG Senate. The voting members of this body shall be collectively referred to as DASG Senators.

Section 3: Objectives

The DASG Senate shall pursue the following, in addition to the objectives stated in Section 1. Any matter that can be decided or considered by a DASG Senator to affect the quality of student life within the College falls under the DASG Senate's jurisdiction. The DASG Senate shall be responsible for the allocation of the designated student fee that forms the DASG Budget. To benefit from certain DASG funded programs or certain rights such as being a member of the DASG Senate, a DASG Constituent needs to pay the DASG Fee by their deadline to pay their fees.

- A. To represent the voices and promote the general welfare of all DASG Constituents.
- B. To be a resource for DASG Constituents and their on campus organizations.
- C. To cultivate leadership in its members and all DASG Constituents.
- D. To support students in accordance with the Mission and Values of De Anza College

Section 4: Actions of the DASG Senate

The DASG Senate shall fulfill its purpose by using the actions including, but not be limited to the following:

- A. The Senate must verbally read through the entire Bylaws at its first meeting of the year and allow for clarifying questions and discussion.
- B. Represent the interests of DASG Constituents on De Anza College Shared Governance Groups.
- C. Allocate each year's DASG Budget and oversee the maintenance of all DASG Budgetary Reserves in the manner it deems to be in the best interest of DASG Constituents.
- D. Take official stances on issues that it considers to be of importance to DASG Constituents and undertake projects and actions in advocacy of those stances.
- E. Host events and programs that benefit DASG Constituents

Section 5: Authority

The authority of these Bylaws is the basis for the conduct of all business in the DASG Senate. Where there is a contradiction between these Bylaws and the College/District Policies, those documents shall supersede these Bylaws. When there is a contradiction between these Bylaws and any DASG Codes or policies adopted by the DASG Senate, these Bylaws shall supersede those codes or policies.

Section 6: Parliamentary Authority

The proceedings of the DASG Senate and its committees shall be governed by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Representation

The DASG Senators shall be comprised of nine (9) DASG Executive Officers, eighteen (18) DASG Internal Officers, and three (3) Program Liaisons for a total of thirty (30) voting members. The DASG Senate can have a maximum of forty (40) voting members. The De Anza College Student Trustee shall be considered a voting member of the DASG Senate as a DASG Executive Officer with all the privileges and responsibilities of a DASG Senator, without the requirement to serve as a member of at least one (1) Internal DASG Committee besides the DASG Executive Advisory Committee. The DASG Senate must be comprised of at least fifteen (15) voting members to be considered the official representative body for the DASG Constituents. If it falls below fifteen (15) members it can only continue to take action to fill vacancies. The DASG Senate shall also be comprised of the DASG Advisors and Committee Interns as non-voting members.

Section 2: Senator Membership Eligibility

A DASG Senator cannot serve as a representative or officer on the Inter Club Council (ICC) except for the DASG Chair of Inter Club Council (ICC). In addition, a DASG Senator must not be on academic or disciplinary probation. Each DASG Senator shall fulfill the following:

- A. All candidates and members of the DASG Senate and ICC must adhere to all DASG, ICC, College, District, Local, State, and Federal Laws, at all times, everywhere, on campus and off campus, in person and online, including, but not limited to, the DASG Bylaws, ICC Code, DASG Code of Conduct and FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500). Any sections of the FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500) that apply to academics shall also apply more broadly for non-academic situations within the DASG Senate and ICC as applicable, including, but not limited to, Dishonesty, Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism in whole or in part, having someone else or using tools such as Artificial Intelligence (AI) (ChatGPT, Copilot, Gemini, Apple Intelligence, etc.) to write answers, statements, or any other parts of any applications or forms, etc.
- B. Pay the DASG Fee by their deadline to pay their fees (not applicable during Summer Quarter).
- C. Within two (2) weeks at the beginning of each quarter, in accordance with the California State Education Code:
 1. Be currently enrolled in at least eight (8.0) quarter units for college credit. Students must maintain any higher unit requirements for any other programs they are in such as the International Students Programs or Disability Support Programs and Services. These requirements are not applicable during Summer Quarter for DASG Senate Eligibility.
 2. Maintain a quarterly and cumulative 2.0, or higher, Grade Point Average (GPA).

Section 3: Duties and Responsibilities of Members

Each DASG Senator shall:

- A. All candidates and members of the DASG Senate and ICC must adhere to all DASG, ICC, College, District, Local, State, and Federal Laws, at all times, everywhere, on campus and off campus, in person and online, including, but not limited to, the DASG Bylaws, ICC Code, DASG Code of Conduct and FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500). Any sections of the FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500) that apply to academics shall also apply more broadly for non-academic situations within the DASG Senate and ICC as applicable, including, but not limited to, Dishonesty, Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism in whole or in part, having someone else or using tools such as Artificial Intelligence (AI) (ChatGPT, Copilot, Gemini, Apple Intelligence, etc.) to write answers, statements, or any other parts of any applications or forms, etc.

- B. Perform all duties delegated to them by the DASG Senate.
- C. Accurately and equally represent the desires and opinions of all DASG Constituents to the best of their abilities in all their actions as a DASG Senator.
- D. Serve as a member of at least one (1) Internal DASG Committee and hold a designated position as mandated by the Code of that committee. The Student Trustee is only required to be a member of the DASG Executive Advisory Committee.
- E. Serve as a member of and submit a written report for at least one (1) External Shared Governance Group within one (1) week of the last meeting.
- E. Maintain a minimum of one (1) publicly posted on campus in person office hour per week and nine (9) field hours per quarter (see Article XV: Glossary for definition and examples of Field Hours).
 - 1. Attendance of DASG Senate meetings, meetings of their own committee(s), and Shared Governance Group meetings do not count towards office hours or field hours.
 - 2. Office hours are to be completed Monday through Friday excluding during breaks, first week, dead week, finals week, and summer.
 - 3. Program Liaisons and the Public Policy Liaison do not need to maintain Office Hours or Field Hours for DASG Senate.

Section 4: Term of Office

A DASG Senator shall begin a term of office after taking the DASG Oath of Office upon election and serve until the induction of the next DASG Senate unless they resign, leave the college, or are expelled.

- A. A term shall be defined as one (1) academic year.
- B. Holding office for any portion(s) of a term shall count as holding office for one (1) term.
- C. No DASG Senator may hold office for more than three (3) consecutive or non-consecutive terms.

Section 5: Vacancy

Vacancies must be announced by the DASG Chair of Administration during the next DASG Senate meeting. The student body must also be notified.

- A. Vacancies must be filled by Midterm Internal Elections as outlined in these Bylaws.

ARTICLE III: EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Section 1: DASG Executive Officers

The DASG Executive Officers shall consist of the following:

- DASG President
- DASG Chair of Administration
- DASG Chair of Finance
- DASG Chair of Student Rights and Equity
- DASG Chair of Marketing
- DASG Chair of Programs
- DASG Chair of Environmental Sustainability
- DASG Chair of Inter Club Council (ICC)
- De Anza College Student Trustee

Section 2: Eligibility Requirements

Each DASG Executive Officer shall:

- A. Be a DASG Senator.
- B. Not concurrently hold more than one (1) DASG Officer position.

Section 3: Duties and Responsibilities of Executive Officers

Each DASG Executive Officer shall:

- A. Be a DASG Senator.
- B. Sign as the authorized Budgeter for any DASG accounts relevant to their position or committee as stated in the DASG Bylaws or Codes.
- C. Maintain and add to their collection of records, resources, and recommendations relating to their position, and ensure that it is passed on to the next holder of their DASG Executive Officer position.

Section 4: Duties and Responsibilities of Chairs

Each Committee Chair shall:

- A. Chair their respective DASG Committee meetings.
- B. Prepare the agendas of all meetings of their respective DASG Committees and post them publicly on the DASG website (except Senate and Finance Committee).
- C. Post the minutes of all meetings of their respective DASG Committees publicly on the DASG website (except Senate and Finance Committee).
- C. Appoint an Internal Officer of the committee to take minutes, submit attendance information to the DASG Chair of Administration, and temporarily Chair committee meetings in the absence of the Chair.
- D. Instruct said appointed Internal Officer on the duties to be performed in the Chair's absence.
- I. Review its Committee Code at least once per year and submit any proposed amendments to the DASG Senate.

Section 5: Individual Duties and Responsibilities

A. DASG President

The DASG President shall:

1. Serve as the Chair and set the agenda of all DASG Senate and Executive Advisory meetings.
2. Swear in the DASG Senator elects.
3. Act as the official spokesperson of the Senate.
4. Be an automatic voting member of the Finance Committee and adhere to committee rules and codes.
5. Be an automatic member of Chancellor's Advisory Council and College Council Shared Governance Groups.
6. Create and prioritize a set of goals for the DASG Senate, amend such goals as necessary, and ensure the Senate is working towards those goals.
7. Facilitate communications with student organizations, college departments and programs, and external organizations.
8. Maintain constant communications with the College President, various shared Governance Groups, DASG Executives, and DASG Advisors.
9. Veto any motion approved by a simple majority of the senate if they don't believe that the motion in question is in the best interest of DASG constituents, however this veto may be overridden by two-thirds of the senate.

Section 6: Succession of Executive Officers for Approval of Financial Transactions

- A. For times at which the DASG Chair of Finance is temporarily unable to approve Financial Transactions for the Student Accounts Office, the order of succession of DASG Executive Officers to approve financial transactions shall be as follows (the succession of officers shall not represent the hierarchy of the organization.):
- DASG President
 - DASG Chair of Administration
 - DASG Chair of Student Rights and Equity
 - DASG Chair of Marketing
 - DASG Chair of Programs
 - DASG Chair of Environmental Sustainability
 - DASG Chair of Inter Club Council (ICC)
 - De Anza College Student Trustee

ARTICLE IV: INTERNAL OFFICERS

Section 1: Internal Officers

Each internal officer:

- A. Serves a specific set of responsibilities and duties as described in their committee's codes, with expectations that are supposed to be met in relation to their position's purpose.
- B. In charge of supervising and ensuring the development of their respective interns as outlined in Article V, Section II.
- C. One (1) Internal Officer shall be appointed by the Chair to take minutes, submit attendance information to the DASG Chair of Administration, and temporarily Chair committee meetings in the absence of the Chair.

ARTICLE V: PROGRAM LIAISONS

Section 1: Purpose and Infrastructure

The Program Liaisons shall serve as official voting representatives of designated equity based programs within the DASG Senate. Their purpose is to:

1. Represent the interests and concerns of students served by their respective programs.
2. Serve as a formal communication bridge between DASG and their program.
3. Advocate for issues relating to disproportionately impacted students.
4. Increase awareness of program services within DASG and the broader student body.

Program Liaisons shall provide structured updates to both DASG and their program at least once per month and maintain documented communication with their Program Coordinator.

Section 2: Appointment

Applications for Program Liaison positions shall open no later than Week 4 of Spring Quarter.

Interviews shall be completed by Week 7 of Spring Quarter.

Appointments shall be finalized by Week 9 of Spring Quarter to allow for onboarding and Fall Training participation.

Program directors and coordinators shall hold an interview with all program-paid interns who applied for the Program Liaison position. One (1) Program Coordinator and/or Director, one (1) staff/faculty from the Equity Action Council, and the DASG Chair of Student Rights and Equity, will conduct interviews with the candidates.

If the DASG Chair of Student Rights and Equity is unavailable, they shall appoint a DASG Senator from the Student Rights and Equity Committee to serve in their place. This could mean one of the Student Rights and Equity Senators (E&D Officer or SR Officer), or another senator they feel has an equitable lens. There should be all three (3) interviewer positions filled prior to the candidate's interview. Questions asked will be guided by the suggested question list recommended by Student Rights and Equity Senators.

In the case of a disagreement on which intern to appoint, interviewees will hold a vote between a maximum of two candidates. A majority vote (minimum of 3 of 5 interviewers) will be used to appoint the Liaison for their Program.

Program Liaisons will be selected and Coordinators will be onboarded by the end of the Spring Quarter prior to their tenure in order for Liaisons to attend Fall Training.

Section 3: Programs

A maximum of 5 positions, 1 per program, will be filled, correlated with the number of committees in DASG, excluding Administration, as Public Policy Liaison is already appointed to be under the Administration Committee.

- Any De Anza Program with paid interns is eligible to apply for a Program Liaison through the Program Liaison Application, as described in the Student Rights and Equity Code.

- Student Rights and Equity makes a recommendation with which Programs should fill the Program Liaison positions based on the Program Appointment Rubric, as explained in the Student Rights and Equity Code.
 - If a Program gets selected for a Program Liaison, but after interviews there are no interns that are able to hold the position, the Program will be removed from consideration and a Program from the Backup Pool (a list of alternate programs) will be contacted instead.
- Student Rights and Equity will then give their recommendations to Equity Faculty (Office of Equity Program Coordinator, DASG Advisor and Learning Communities Coordinator).
- Possible programs to create recommendations from are the SSRS programs, VIDA programs and any other student success and retention programs like MESA, EOPS, etc.
- Program Liaisons shall serve for one-year terms upon confirmation. Individuals wishing to continue in the role in the subsequent academic year must reapply and participate in the interview process. Incumbent status may be considered during the evaluation and selection process.

Examples of questions that will be used to evaluate programs as a part of the Student Rights and Equity Program Appointment Rubric:

- Is the Program Coordinator available during Spring Quarter to aid in the establishment of the Program Liaison?
 - If not, the Program Coordinator should appoint someone to take care of the Program Liaison selection process in order to ensure that a Program Liaison is able to attend Fall Training.
- Does the program have interns that have the capacity to hold both an intern position in their program and be a DASG senator?

Section 4: Eligibility Requirements

Each Program Liaison shall:

- A. Be appointed as a DASG Senator upon confirmation.
- B. Not concurrently hold a DASG Senator position, ICC Chair position, M@DA Senior Mentor position, nor any other OCL program position.
- C. Be a paid intern of a program that assists Disproportionately Impacted students as stated in De Anza's Equity Plan Re-Imagined.
 - Despite Program Liaisons being interns, they will still have access to the scholarship due to the additional work they put in outside of being an intern.
 - It's up to the Program Coordinators to decide to adjust their Program Liaison workload.

Section 5: Duties and Responsibilities

Each Program Liaison shall:

- A. All candidates and members of the DASG Senate and ICC must adhere to all DASG, ICC, College, District, Local, State, and Federal Laws, at all times, everywhere, on campus and off campus, in person and online, including, but not limited to, the DASG Bylaws, ICC Code, DASG Code of Conduct and FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500). Any sections of the FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500) that apply to academics shall also apply more broadly for non-academic situations within the DASG Senate and ICC as applicable, including, but not limited to, Dishonesty, Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism in whole or in part, having someone else or using tools such as Artificial Intelligence (AI) (ChatGPT, Copilot, Gemini, Apple Intelligence, etc.) to write answers, statements, or any other parts of any applications or forms, etc.

- B. Attend all DASG Senate meetings as a voting member.
- C. Perform all duties delegated to them by the DASG Senate.
- D. Accurately and equally represent the desires and opinions of their DASG Constituents to the best of their abilities in all their actions as a DASG Senator.
- E. Serve as a voting member of an Internal DASG Committee and attend all committee meetings. Program Liaisons are eligible to join any Internal DASG Committee, with the exception of the Administration Committee.
- F. Check in with the DASG Equity and Diversity Officer at least once per month.
- G. Attend a quarterly meeting with the DASG Student Rights and Equity Committee and all other Program Liaisons
- H. Create at least 1 collaborative activity, project or event between their program and DASG per quarter.
 - a. Projects may include an event, proposal or any sort of collaborative effort between the program except asking for a budget request.
 - b. This type of project or event should be tracked by the Program Coordinators.

Section 6: Accountability and Removal Process

- A. If the Program Liaison is not fulfilling their work, DASG will have to contact their respective program coordinator.
 - a. Similar to the appointment process, a council of equity members including the Student Rights and Equity Senators, Program Coordinator, DASG Advisor, and Office of Equity Coordinator will hold a meeting and discuss how to proceed.
 - b. If the council of equity members decide on removal, then Program Coordinators will appoint a replacement intern who is willing and eligible to be a DASG Senator.
 - i. To foster a smooth transition between the replacement Program Liaison and the removed Program Liaison, there will be two weeks of onboarding where the new Program Liaison will shadow the soon to be removed Program Liaison. An announcement shall also be made during the Senate prior to removal.
 - ii. If no such additional intern exists, the position will be left vacant.
- B. Refer to DASG Bylaws for the Impeachment and Removal Processes.

ARTICLE VI: INTERNS

Section 1: DASG Interns

A. Definition

DASG Interns are DASG Constituents who are not DASG Senators who serve the DASG Senate and their fellow DASG Constituents on Internal DASG Committees and External Shared Governance Groups.

B. Eligibility Requirements

DASG Interns shall:

1. All candidates and members of the DASG Senate and ICC must adhere to all DASG, ICC, College, District, Local, State, and Federal Laws, at all times, everywhere, on campus and off campus, in person and online, including, but not limited to, the DASG Bylaws, ICC Code, DASG Code of Conduct and FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500). Any sections of the FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500) that apply to academics shall also apply more broadly for non-academic situations within the DASG Senate and ICC as applicable, including, but not limited to, Dishonesty, Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism in whole or in part, having someone else or using tools such as Artificial Intelligence (AI) (ChatGPT, Copilot, Gemini, Apple Intelligence, etc.) to write answers, statements, or any other parts of any applications or forms, etc.
2. Pay the DASG Fee by their deadline to pay their fees (not applicable during Summer Quarter).
3. Be currently enrolled in at least eight (8.0) units at De Anza College. (Not in effect during summer quarter.) Students must maintain any higher unit requirements for any other programs they are in such as the International Students Programs or Disability Support Programs and Services. These requirements are not applicable during Summer Quarter for DASG Senate Eligibility.
4. Have an quarterly and cumulative G.P.A. of at least 2.0 (on a 4 point scale) and not be on academic or disciplinary probation.

Section 2: Internal DASG Committee Intern

A. Purpose of Position

The intended purpose of the position of the Internal DASG Committee Intern shall be:

1. To provide DASG Constituents a platform for leadership development.
2. To provide DASG Constituents an opportunity to participate in the DASG Senate even if they are unable to fulfil all duties of a Senator at that time.
3. To provide support for the DASG Committees in carrying out their duties.
4. To provide DASG Constituents an opportunity to learn new skills.

B. Application and Approval

Any DASG Constituent may become an Internal DASG Committee Intern through the following procedures during fall and winter quarters (Prospective Interns cannot be approved during spring quarter):

1. Fully attend at least two (2) meetings of the Internal DASG Committee they wish to join and announce their intention to become an Intern during Introduction of Prospective Interns at the end of the agenda.

2. Complete prerequisite training, projects, designated courses on Canvas, and quizzes as dictated by each individual committee.
3. After the second (2nd) meeting be interviewed by Senator(s) of the committee.
4. Be approved by the voting members of the committee
5. Submit a DASG Intern Application form. The Office of College Life will verify eligibility, and if eligible, submit their name for approval on the next DASG Senate Consent Calendar.
6. Receive approval from the DASG Senate through the Consent Calendar.
7. Any candidate who is denied confirmation as an Intern may not be considered for that position again until they have attended at least two (2) additional meetings of the Internal DASG Committee they wish to join.

C. Duties and Responsibilities

Internal DASG Committee Interns shall:

1. All candidates and members of the DASG Senate and ICC must adhere to all DASG, ICC, College, District, Local, State, and Federal Laws, at all times, everywhere, on campus and off campus, in person and online, including, but not limited to, the DASG Bylaws, ICC Code, DASG Code of Conduct and FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500). Any sections of the FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500) that apply to academics shall also apply more broadly for non-academic situations within the DASG Senate and ICC as applicable, including, but not limited to, Dishonesty, Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism in whole or in part, having someone else or using tools such as Artificial Intelligence (AI) (ChatGPT, Copilot, Gemini, Apple Intelligence, etc.) to write answers, statements, or any other parts of any applications or forms, etc.
2. Attend all meetings of applied committees as well as those convened by the Internal Officer they're interning underneath.
 - a. Two (2) unexcused absences per quarter shall result in automatic removal from the committee. DASG Chairs will notify the DASG Chair of Administration and DASG Secretary so they can be placed on Consent Calendar for official removal.
3. Meet with the respective internal officer weekly to give a report on goals and actions taken on assigned tasks.
4. Support the committees to which they are members; they are not meant to take over the duties of DASG Internal Officers (all committee work should be divided evenly amongst DASG Internal Officers and DASG Interns).

Section 3: DASG External Shared Governance Group Intern

Following shared governance appointment procedures, DASG Constituents who are not DASG Senators may be appointed to fill vacant positions on External Shared Governance Groups that are not designated for specific DASG Senate positions, provided that:

1. All candidates and members of the DASG Senate and ICC must adhere to all DASG, ICC, College, District, Local, State, and Federal Laws, at all times, everywhere, on campus and off campus, in person and online, including, but not limited to, the DASG Bylaws, ICC Code, DASG Code of Conduct and FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500). Any sections of the FHDA Standards of Student Conduct (AP 5500) that apply to academics shall also apply more broadly for non-academic situations within the DASG Senate and ICC as applicable, including, but not limited to, Dishonesty, Academic Dishonesty, Plagiarism in whole or in part, having someone else or using tools such as Artificial Intelligence (AI) (ChatGPT, Copilot, Gemini, Apple Intelligence, etc.) to write answers, statements, or any other parts of any applications or forms, etc.
2. All DASG Senators have at least one (1) Shared Governance Group appointment, or the position on the committee has specifically been designated for a non-Senator by the DASG Senate or the External Shared Governance Group at the time of appointment.
3. The DASG Constituent attends at least one (1) meeting of the Shared Governance Group prior to appointment.
4. The DASG Constituent commits to carry out all of the Duties and Responsibilities of Student Representatives as outlined in Article VII, Section 4 of the DASG Bylaws, including the submission of written reports to the DASG Senate within one week of Shared Governance Group meeting attendance.
5. Submit the completed DASG External Shared Governance Group Internship Application to the Office of College Life. The Office of College Life will verify eligibility and if eligible forward the application to the DASG Executive Advisory Committee.
6. Be interviewed by the DASG Executive Advisory Committee..
7. Be approved by the DASG Executive Advisory Committee with a majority vote.
8. The DASG Chair of Administration shall submit the name to the DASG Secretary for approval on the next DASG Senate Consent Calendar.
9. The DASG Constituent shall serve in the appointed Student Representative position until the end of the current DASG Senate term of office.
10. The DASG Constituent may be removed from the Shared Governance Group in accordance with DASG procedures.

ARTICLE VII: INTERNAL DASG COMMITTEES

Section 1: Internal DASG Committees

The DASG Senate shall comprise the following committees:

- DASG Administration Committee
- DASG Finance Committee
- DASG Student Rights and Equity Committee
- DASG Marketing Committee
- DASG Events Committee
- DASG Environmental Sustainability Committee
- DASG Inter Club Council (ICC)
- DASG Executive Advisory Committee

Section 2: Ad Hoc Committees

Ad Hoc Committees shall be formed by the DASG Senate as needed for special projects for a period of less than one year during the current DASG Term of Office.

Section 3: Formation and Dissolution of Ad Hoc Committees

A.

C. Ad Hoc Committee shall be formed by a majority vote of the DASG Senate. All DASG Senate Ad Hoc Committees must be formed with the following definitions:

1. Name of the body.
2. Purpose of the body.
3. Authority of the committee to act on behalf of the DASG Senate under specific circumstances.

D. Ad Hoc Committee shall be dissolved by a majority vote of the DASG Senate. All members of dissolved Ad Hoc Committees shall automatically be removed from the committee.

Section 4: Duties and Responsibilities of Committees

Each DASG Committee shall:

- A. Committees must verbally read through their entire Code(s) at their first meeting of the year and allow for clarifying questions and discussion.
- B. Conduct its business in accordance with the DASG Bylaws and its Committee Code.
- C. Hold meetings in accordance with the DASG Bylaws.
- D. Work on business referred to it by the DASG Senate.
- E. Review its Committee Code at least once per year and submit any proposed amendments to the DASG Senate.
- F. Maintain institutional memory of all proposed, in progress, and completed projects and committee members' testimonies.

Section 5: DASG Administration Committee

- A. The DASG Administration Committee is responsible for overseeing the administrative, advocacy, and student elections work at De Anza College, including but not limited to, recruiting candidates, educating candidates, marketing and promoting the elections, as well as maintaining the DASG Bylaws and any Resolutions addressed by the DASG Senate, representing the interests of DASG Constituents at the College, District, State, and Federal levels, cultivating relationships with other Community College Students, and motivating DASG Constituents in responsible citizenship and civic engagement, along with other Objectives, Duties, and Responsibilities in accordance with the DASG Administration and DASG Elections Codes.

Section 6: DASG Finance Committee

- A.  - 1. At the discretion of those DASG Senators in attendance, the DASG Senate or DASG Committee shall be permitted to take official votes and actions on an emergency basis when quorum is not in effect, but if not subsequently ratified at a meeting of that body with quorum, all such actions shall be considered null and void.
- D. The DASG President and Chair of Administration may join a committee meeting for quorum to be established within that subordinate body and will be provisionally provided with the privileges of a senator within that committee, including, but not limited to, voting and proposing and seconding motions.

ARTICLE X: ELECTIONS

Section 1: Annual DASG Executive Officer General Election

- A. The annual DASG Executive Officer General Election shall be conducted in accordance with the adopted DASG Elections Code.

Section 2: Annual DASG Internal Officer Internal Election

- A. The Annual DASG Internal Officer Internal Election shall be conducted in accordance with the adopted DASG Elections Code.

Section 3: Midterm Internal Elections for Filling Vacancies

- A. This section details the process for filling vacancies during the current term of office.
 - 1. The Midterm Internal Election process during the Senate meetings shall use the Internal Officer Election process outlined in the DASG Elections Code except it will only include the DASG Senate for the current Term of Office.
- B. Midterm President Internal Election
 - a. The Chair of Administration will take over the President position.
 - b. If there is no Chair of Administration, one of the other Chairs must nominate themselves. If there is more than one nomination, the Midterm Internal Election process will be used to select the new President.
- C. Midterm Chair Internal Election
 - a. The Internal Officer appointed by the Chair to take minutes, submit attendance information to the DASG Chair of Administration, and temporarily Chair committee meetings in the absence of the Chair in accordance with Article III, Section 4, C, shall be appointed as the new Chair.
 - b. If an Internal Officer has not been appointed or the appointed officer is unable to accept the position, the DASG Executive Advisory Committee will appoint a current Internal Officer from the Committee to the Chair position.
- D. Midterm Internal Officer Election
 - 1. Any DASG Constituent may be approved as a DASG Internal Officer through the following procedures during fall and winter quarters (Midterm Internal Officer Elections cannot take place during spring quarter):
 - 2. A vacant Internal Officer position must currently exist.
 - 3. Go through the process of becoming an Internal DASG Committee Intern for that committee as described in Article IV, Section 2, B and become an Internal DASG Committee Intern.
 - 4. Attend at least one (1) full meeting of their Internal DASG Committee as an Intern of that committee.
 - 5. Fully attend at least three (3) out of four (4) consecutive DASG Senate meetings within the current Term of Office as described in Article II, Section 3 (attendance at DASG Senate meetings can take place at the same time as going through the process of becoming an Internal DASG Senate Intern and attending their committee meeting as an Intern).
 - 6. Submit a completed DASG Internal Officer application for the vacant position within the committee that they served as an Intern in and include portfolio work to the application if it is specifically requested for the position on the application.

7. Be interviewed by the DASG Senate at or after their third (3rd) Senate meeting using the Midterm Internal Officer Election process.
8. Be sworn in by the DASG President.
9. Any candidate who is denied confirmation as a DASG Senator may not be considered for that position again until they have attended at least three (3) out of four consecutive additional DASG Senate meetings within the current Term of Office as described in Article II, Section 3.

Section 4: Switching Positions within a Committee

1. If a Chair decides they are unable to continue as Chair but would still be able to continue as an Internal Officer in their Committee, they may switch positions with an Internal Officer in the committee with confirmation by the DASG Senate.

ARTICLE XI: ABSENCES

Section 1: Excusing Absences

- A. An absence may be recognized as excused by the DASG Chair of Administration or the Chair of their respective DASG Committee or during the approval of the minutes for the meeting(s) in which the absence occurred by amending those minutes normally.
 - 1. Excused Absences shall be at the discretion of the DASG Chair of Administration or the Chair of the respective DASG Committee, and the following guidelines must be considered:
 - a. Notify the DASG Chair of Administration or the Chair of the respective DASG Committee at least 12 hours before the meeting.
 - b. In the case of illness or unforeseen circumstances, the 12-hours requirement may be waived, and the absence may be excused.
- B. When a DASG Senator misses 33% or more of a Senate or Committee meeting, they shall receive an unexcused absence.
 - 1. Partial Absences shall be at the discretion of the DASG Chair of Administration or Chair of the respective DASG Committee, and the following guidelines must be considered:
 - a. Notify the DASG Chair of Administration or Chair of the respective DASG Committee at least 12 hours before the meeting.
 - b. In the case of illness or unforeseen circumstances the 12-hour requirement may be waived, and the absence may be excused.
- C. Absences not recorded by meeting minutes may be excused by an agenda item at a later meeting or when absences have accumulated enough to cause a member to be put on the agenda for removal proceedings.
- D. Excused Absences shall count as half of an Unexcused Absence unless it is for illness or unforeseen circumstances.
- E. If a Senator requires a larger number of Excused Absences they should consider requesting a Leave of Absence.
- F. A leave of absence automatically considers absences during the time in question to be excused.

Section 2: Leaves of Absences

- A. Any DASG Senator may request up to forty-five (45) leave of absence days per term of office. Leaves of Absence can be for longer than forty-five (45) days in special circumstances (health issues, maternity leave, extended jury duty, etc.).
- B. All leaves of absence must be at least six (6) calendar days in duration.
- C. All leaves of absence must be announced to the DASG Senate.
- D. Each DASG Senator shall immediately resume their duties and responsibilities upon returning from their leave of absence.
- E. All requests for leave of absence must be submitted to the DASG Chair of Administration at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the commencement date of the requested leave of absence.

- F. The DASG Chair of Administration may grant an emergency leave of absence if the seven (7) calendar day requirement cannot be met. The Senate may override the DASG Chair of Administration's decision.
 - 1. The DASG Chair of Administration will notify the Senate in cases of an emergency leave of absence during Senate Announcements.
- G. All DASG Senators on leave of absence cannot participate in any DASG Senate meetings or DASG Committee meetings.

ARTICLE XII: RESIGNATIONS AND REMOVALS

Section 1: Resignations

Any DASG Senator may resign from office at any time.

- A. Written resignations must be submitted to the DASG Senate to be presented at the next DASG Senate meeting.
- B. Verbal resignations may be permitted, considered official only when made at DASG Senate meetings.
- C. All resignations are binding and cannot be rescinded.

Section 2: Automatic Removal

- A. When a DASG Senator fails to meet their Eligibility Requirements as outlined in Article II, Section 2, they shall be automatically removed from the DASG Senate.
 - 1. If a DASG Senator can meet their Eligibility Requirements within one (1) week of automatic removal they shall be reinstated.
- B. When a DASG Senator fails to fulfill their duties outlined in Article II, Section 8 and those for their respective position as described in their respective committee's code(s), within one (1) quarter, they shall be automatically removed from the DASG Senate at the start of the next quarter.
- C. When a DASG Senator has three (3) or more Unexcused Absences from any source(s) (e.g. DASG Senate meetings, Internal DASG Committee or External Shared Governance Committee meetings, Office Hours, Online Interactions, etc.) within one (1) quarter, they shall be removed from the DASG Senate.
- D. The DASG Chair of Administration will notify the Senate in cases of automatic removal during Senate Announcements on the DASG Senate Agenda.

Section 3: Peer Removal

- A. Any five (5) DASG Senators may submit a Bill of Particulars to the DASG Senate at any time.
 - 1. The Bill of Particulars may be submitted at any time, before the DASG Senate meeting where the Peer Removal will be addressed, calling for the expulsion of a DASG Senator from the DASG Senate.
- B. The Bill of Particulars must cite the section(s) of the DASG Bylaws, the DASG Codes, or College/District Regulations that have been violated by the DASG Senator in question.
 - 1. Include dates, witnesses, situations and/or evidence as appropriate.
 - 2. Any documentation or evidence that is to be publicized must censor the legal and preferred names, usernames, and profile pictures of anyone not involved in the infraction, serving as a current or prospective DASG Senate Members, nor the current De Anza Student Trustee.
- C. The DASG Chair of Administration shall notify the DASG Senator in question of their right to appear at the removal proceeding, which shall be at the next regular DASG Senate meeting.
- D. The DASG Chair of Administration shall place the expulsion or removal proceeding on the DASG Senate agenda and present the case for removal to the DASG Senate.
 - 1. Exception: If the DASG Chair of Administration is in question, the DASG President shall present the case to the DASG Senate.

- E. The DASG Senate shall debate the act of expelling or removing the DASG Senator in question, from which the DASG Senator in question cannot be excluded.
 - 1. The debate must include one argument for and one argument against before the debate may end.
 - 2. The Senator in question must be afforded two (2) minutes to speak.
- F. The DASG Senate may remove the DASG Senator with the approval by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the DASG Senate.
- G. A DASG Senator expelled or removed from office shall be allowed one (1) appeal within two (2) regular DASG Senate meetings of their removal.

Section 4: Removal by DASG Constituents

- A. DASG Constituents shall be permitted to seek to directly discipline or remove any DASG Senator by submitting a petition to the DASG Advisor signed by at least five hundred (500) DASG Constituents. The petition must include the following:
 - 1. Description of the manner in which the DASG Senator in question has failed to fulfill their duties.
 - 2. Request of disciplinary action and/or removal of that DASG Senator.
 - 3. Each signer's full printed name, signature, and student identification number.

Section 5: Appeals

An expelled DASG Senator may appeal their expulsion. Automatic Removals cannot be appealed.

- A. The appeal must be made at the DASG Senate meeting following the expulsion.
- B. The expelled DASG Senator shall be given an opportunity to speak to the DASG Senate and answer questions.
- C. A two-thirds vote of the DASG Senate shall be required for reinstatement.
- D. If the expelled DASG Senator is not reinstated, the expulsion is irrevocable.
- E. Failure to appear at the meeting where expulsion occurs or the appeal directly following the expulsion, without prior notice to the DASG President or DASG Chair of Administration, will make that expulsion irrevocable.
- F. If prior notice is given, the DASG Senate may consider reinstatement in the expelled DASG Senator's absence.
- G. No DASG Senator shall be expelled, and no expulsion shall be made irrevocable through negligence or error on the part of the DASG President or DASG Chair of Administration.

ARTICLE XIII: AMENDMENT AND ADOPTION

Section 1: Amendment of DASG Bylaws

All amendments to the DASG Bylaws must follow this process:

- A. Process in the DASG Administration Committee
 - 1. The DASG Administration Committee shall propose and solicit amendments to the DASG Bylaws.
 - 2. All amendments shall require approval by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the DASG Administration Committee before it can be sent to the DASG Senate.
